VILLA'S TROOPS IN HIGH SPIRITS

Improvised Folk Songs, Bands and Choruses Stir Constitutional Soldiers.

RIVALRY AMONG MEN

General Realizes Effect of Music on Men and Encourages Organizations.

Hipolito, Mex., May 16.—The army of General Villa was early astir today in preparation for its advance against the federal garrison of Saltillo. The men, seemingly always cheerful, were in excellent spirits. News that a constitutional party of 300 men had surprised and routed 400 federalists near Paredon yesterday filtered through the ranks, putting the men in good humor and serving to start the improvised folk songs in which the Mexican soldier delights.

Scarcely a single company but has several favorite minstrels who improvise verses on the happenings of the campaign and the camp.

General Villa has realized the effect of music on the spirits of his men and the organization of bands and choruses has been encouraged. These sing endless verses composed by themselves eulogizing Villa, Carranza, their guns and horses.

Keen Rivalry Among Men.

There is a keen rivalry between the men of the different brigades and the badges distinguishing the commands are proudly displayed. The men are well clothed, but are not distinctively uniformed. There is a sprinkling of khaki uniforms, but the greater number wear blue overalls. The men, however, wear colored bands with the name of the brigade printed on them in black to distinguish their commands. Usually these are worn on the left arm, but sometimes are made to serve as a hat band. The band of the Zaragoza brigade, said to be the crack organization of the army, is white. This brigade is commanded by Raoul Madero, brother of former President Madero, who but a short time ago when his brother met his tragic death in Mexico City, was a Cornell undergraduate.

Broadway and Maker will enter the broad jump. Either is likely to jump close to 23 feet.

THE WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

WALL STREET.

New York, May 16.—The market closed easy today. Early heaviness due to the decline of prices in London was of short duration, but after the losses had been recovered, the list eased off again and the session ended with a majority of small declines.

The cheerful tone of the weekly trade reviews, good weather conditions for the crops and the favorable investment position disclosed by the ready absorption of bond and note issues supported bullish opinion.

Bonds were irregular. A sharp setback in American stocks at London registered its effect on prices here at the opening of the market today. Most of the international shares were lower. Steel, Amalgamated, Union Pacific and Reading, the speculative leaders, all lost large fractions. Although the undertone was heavy the movement was not uniformly downward, as a few shares, including St. Paul and Canadian Pacific, showed improvement. Trading was slow and no attempt was made to extend the opening losses. The list stiffened after the first few minutes.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, May 16.—Rain in the southwest tended today to make the wheat market easy. Continued dry weather was regarded as likely to cause greater danger of crop injury from Hessian fly. It took but little buying, however, to hold prices close to the previous day's finish. The opening, which was 1-8c off to 1-8c up, was followed by a slight sag all around.

Corn showed firmness on account of unfavorable conditions in Argentina. Auspicious weather for domestic planting served as an offset in part. Quotations started 1-8@1-4c down to 1-4c higher and then hardened, especially for May.

Oats followed corn. Trade, though, was small. Notwithstanding lack of demand, provisions moved up with corn and hogs. Most of the business was in lard.

The bears suffered worse after Buenos Ayres dispatches came indicating that rain damage to corn was being increased by excessive heat. The close was steady 1-4@3-8 to 3-5c above last night.

Subsequently, congestion became very apparent in May wheat and led speculators to take to the buying side of deferred futures. There were reports that Hessian fly had spread into Kansas, notably Salina and Ottawa counties. The close was unsettled at 3-4c net advance.

Metals.

New York, May 16.—The metal markets were quiet and practically nominal. Lake copper, nominal; electrolytic, $14.35; casting, $14.00 to 14.12. Iron, unchanged.
